Aromatics, spices, herbs and seasoning are the initial core of Aroma culinary excellence. Providing the subtle aroma, intriguing undertones and appetising nuances between pungency and fragrance, the two ends of the aromatic scale. The use of aromatics combined with diverse techniques and styles of cooking give Aroma fare its unique character. Some of our Aroma dishes are light, barely brushed by the breath of a single herb, some rich and grand, but never ever heavy.

Please notify us of any allergy concerns.
